Master Plan

- The board continued discussion from the previous Master Plan meeting reviewing land use and land use policies on pages 65-84 of the Draft Master Plan.
- The board reviewed recommendations on pages 86-92 and discussed what could be added, where more detail was needed and what should be eliminated in order to have a clear, concise document.
 - During the last Master Plan, there were concerns with growth and development. Those concerns remain, but new concerns about the town's increasing tax rates and rising cost of schooling emerge.
- If anyone have additional comments or concerns, they need to be emailed to Tara by the end of next week, Friday, April 5.
- The next special meeting for the Master Plan will be Thursday, April 25 at 6:00 PM. After that meeting, a public hearing can be held. The Master Plan is on track for publication in the summer.

Anita Craven moved to close the meeting at 7:45 PM. Zak Mei seconded. All in favor. None opposed. Passed.
